Questions:
- Samson was to be a Nazirite to God from the womb. What was to never touch a Nazirite's head? (A razor)
 - When a Nazirite's vow of separation ended, what was he to do to his head? (Shave it)
 - After Samson's head was shaved, his strength left him, because "the blank had left him." (Lord)
 - The Philistines gauged out Samson's eyes, bound him with shackles, and made him grind at the mill in the blank. (Prison)
 - All the lords of the Philistines and 3,000 men and women gathered to sacrifice to their god. How did Samson get the strength to pull down the pillars of the house on top of them? (He asked the Lord God to strengthen him.)
 - Samson said, "Let me blank with the Philistines." (Die)
- Transitional Thought: Samson was born to begin to save Israel from the Philistines. Samson died, sacrificing his life while saving the Israelites. Samson was an imperfect picture of the perfect Messiah, Jesus Christ, who was born to save his people from their sin. Jesus Christ sacrificed His life on the cross to save man from eternal death.
- Tell students that in this lesson we see that Jesus Christ is the "Perfect Sacrifice." Have students repeat the word, fold hands over heart, and bow head.
