10 minutes Strategy: Hot Potato
Instructions: Have students sit in a fellowship circle. A bean bag is passed around the circle while music is played. When the music stops, the person holding the object answers the question.
Questions:
- When Samuel became old, Samuel's sons became judges over Israel. Did they judge as Samuel had judged? (No, they took bribes.)
  - What did the elders of Israel request of Samuel? (A king)
  - The Lord said, "Obey the voice of the people...for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me from being king over them...from the day I brought them up out of Egypt even to this day, forsaking me and serving other blank." (gods)
  - The Lord told Samuel to warn the people about the ways of the king. List some of the things that Samuel said would happen to their sons. (They would be taken to be his horsemen, to farm, to make equipment...)
  - List some of the things that Samuel said would happen to their daughters. (They would be taken to be perfumers, cooks, and bakers.)
  - The people continued to demand a king. They said, "...our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles." Since the Israelites left Egypt, Who had led them, judged them, and fought their battles? (The Lord)
  - The Lord told Samuel, "Obey their voice and make them a blank." (King)
- Transitional Thought: Although the Lord God had led, judged, and fought for Israel since they left Egypt over 400 years before, the Israelites rejected God as their king and demanded a human king to lead, judge, and fight for them. God told Samuel to give them the king. When a person believes in Jesus Christ and accepts His blood sacrifice for their sin, God gives the believer Someone better than a king. God gives the Holy Spirit.
