- Bible Facts Materials: Bibles for students to use
5-10 minutes Strategies: Bible Drill

When the leader says, "Charge," the students look for the reference in their Bibles. When the reference is found, students stand and read it.
- Bible Reading Materials: Bibles for students to use
15 minutes Strategies: Group Read Aloud & Picturing
Scripture: Leviticus 7:31-32; I Samuel 2:12-36
Instructions: Give each student a set of verses to read. Have students take turns standing to read their passage while the other students close their eyes and picture what they are hearing. Encourage readers to read very expressively. Allow listeners to share what they pictured.
- Bible Discussion Materials: Word poster #3 "Work of the Holy Spirit," add "Convictor of Sin"
10 minutes Strategy: Hot Potato
Instructions: Have students sit in a fellowship circle. A bean bag is passed around the circle while music is played. When the music stops, the person holding the object answers the question.
Questions:
- The sons of Eli the priest were worthless men who did not know the blank. (Lord)
 - According to the law, the fat was to be burned on the altar as an offering to the Lord. After which some meat would be given to the priests. Did Eli's sons wait for the Lord's sacrifice before taking their portion of meat? (No)

 - Eli spoke to his sons about their sins. Did Hophni and Phinehas listen to their father? (No)
 - God accused Eli of honoring his blank above the Lord by taking the best part of every offering and thereby scorning the sacrifices and offerings that were the Lord's. (Sons)
 - God sent a messenger to Eli to tell him what was going to happen because of his sons' sins. What did God say would happen to Hophni and Phinehas? (They would both die on the same day.)

Learning to Know the Triune God through His Holy Word

- “Samuel continued to grow both in stature and in favor with the blank and also with blank.” (Lord, man)

Transitional Thought: Eli’s sons sinned against the Lord. When Eli confronted them, they did not listen to him and the Lord promised that they would die. The wages of sin is death. The Holy Spirit convicts men of their sin, making them realize their guilt, so that they will turn from unbelief to belief in Jesus Christ & His blood payment on the cross for sin.

Show students word poster #3 and have them act out the words – Work of the Holy Spirit: Prayer Interpreter (place hands at heart and then extend toward heaven); Convictor of Sin (turn two thumbs down and then point emphatically)

Group Prayer Through prayer, praise God for Who He is and for the work of Jesus Christ the Messiah and the work of the Holy Spirit.

Bible Memory Materials: White board with markers and eraser
10-15 minutes Strategy: Clap, snap, tap
Instructions: Have students sit in a semi-circle or rows facing a white board with the following passage written on it:

Question: What work does the Holy Spirit do concerning sin?

Answer: The Holy Spirit convicts people of their sin.

Verse: “And when he comes, he will convict the world concerning sin...because they do not believe in me.” John 16:8-9

Students read the passage in unison a couple of times. Then sounds are used to replace some of the words and the passage is read using the sounds instead of the words. Example: Holy Spirit = clap, clap; sin = snap fingers; convict(s) = tap one foot, etc.

Bible Craft Materials: Paper, scissors, markers, glue/tape/stapler, sample project
As time allows Activity: Sin Chain of Death
Instructions: Have students sit at tables. Give students paper and have them cut it into strips. Have students write on each strip of paper various sins and statements about sins. Examples: All have sinned; Guilty of sin; Wages of sin is death; Lie; Steal; Unbelief; Convicted, etc. Assist students to roll the strips of paper and link them together into a chain. Discuss the fact that all people are sinners and are chained by their sin and deserving of death. Explain that when the Holy Spirit convicts people of their sin and they put their faith in Jesus Christ and His blood payment on the cross for their sin, they are freed from the death penalty. They are no longer shackled by the sin chain of death.

Closing Have students assist with clean-up.
Remind students to practice their memory work throughout the week.
Close in prayer & dismiss.
